

AOC Oath of Office

"Ladies and Gentlemen, please repeat after me: I, (state your name), Promise to uphold the office of (state your position) and to promote the principles and ideals of the Association of Old Crows and the AOC Educational Foundation, as provided by the By-Laws to the best of my ability."

I understand that by taking the Oath of Office as a director of the Association of Old Crows, I am fully committed and dedicated to its mission and pledge to faithfully carry out my duties and responsibilities as an AOC Director which include the following:

1. I am fiscally responsible, with other board members, and for the AOC. I will know what our budget is and take an active part in reviewing, approving, and monitoring the budget, and actively supporting revenue-generating activities to meet it.
2. I am aware of my legal and fiduciary responsibilities to the AOC and those of my fellow board members. I will honor these responsibilities. I am responsible to know and oversee the implementation of AOC policies and programs.
3. I accept the Bylaws and Operations Manuals of the AOC and understand that I am morally responsible for the health and well-being of this organization.
4. I will actively promote AOC and encourage and support its staff.
5. I will attend board meetings, be available for phone consultation, and serve on at least one committee. If I am unable to meet my obligations as a board member, I will offer my resignation.
6. I understand that no quotas are being set and that no rigid standards of measurement or achievement are being formed. Every member of the Board of Directors of AOC is making a statement of faith about every other board member. We are trusting each other to carry out the above agreements to the best of our ability.
7. I will abide by the AOC's Board of Directors Code of Ethics policies.
