

Training and Education Committee

1. Committee Purpose: To develop and implement a training and education strategy designed to support the full spectrum of our membership from lifetime members to our newest Crows, from technical experts to non-technical novices, to monitor ongoing professional educational and training activities and to advise the President and Board of Directors on training and educational matters as they pertain to the Association of Old Crows.
2. Duties:
 - To ensure the AOC President and Board of Directors are informed of technical educational programs that would be of value to the membership and that would increase the professional stature of the Association and membership as a whole.
 - To maintain contact with the qualified academic institutions and other educational organizations to initiate interest in the development of courses of instruction in areas related to electronic warfare.
 - Support the Convention committee in identifying sources for professional papers.
 - Formulate and present to the President and Board of Directors recommended alternative courses of action as may be agreed on in committee or as may be directed by the President.
 - Upon identification and Board of Directors approval of a relevant course of instruction in electronic warfare and/or information operations, coordinate the funding and schedule requirements to bring the course to a state of professional quality and availability to the membership.
 - Establish liaison with representatives of academic institutions and other instructional organizations to review current and future courses of instruction that could be adopted and made available to the membership.
 - Regularly sample membership interest in subjects for future additional courses of instruction in EW and IO matters.
3. Chair: Appointed by the President
4. Members: The Committee shall be comprised of, in addition to the Chairman, not less than two, but no more than ten members, including either a salaried staff member for administration of technical programs or alternatively, the AOC Executive Director. The members shall be nominated by the Chairman and appointed by the President and shall be
