ASSOCIATION OF OLD CROWS

WHY JOIN AOC?

CRITICAL KNOWLEDGE

Stay informed with exclusive access to the Journal of Electromagnetic Dominance and members-only "From the Crows' Nest" podcast episodes featuring breaking news, in-depth technical analysis, and expert interviews.

GLOBAL NETWORKING

Connect with professionals worldwide through local chapters, international conferences, and specialized regional summits. Build valuable relationships across government, defense, industry, and academia in your field.

CROSS-DOMAIN EDUCATION

Enhance your expertise through professional development courses, live webinars, and on-demand training sessions that span multiple branches, services, and technical specialties.

COMMUNITY RECOGNITION

Gain formal acknowledgment of your contributions through AOC's Awards Program while joining a respected community that advocates for EW and EMSO professionals.

CAREER ADVANCEMENT

Access defense-specific job opportunities and career development resources through the AOC Career Center, while building leadership skills and professional relationships through volunteer opportunities within the association.

NEXT-GEN DEVELOPMENT

Cultivate the next generation of EW leaders by supporting the Future 5 leadership program, funding and applying for scholarships, and championing outreach to STEM students.
